Customer Support Team of a Power Systems OEM in India

“ IndAXonline enabled us to procure critical spare parts well on time and at a reasonable cost so we delivered greater value to our customers by reduced plant down time which occurs due to automation component failure.

C.S. ANVEKAR, Director - Hi-tech Automation, Pune

“ Since several years, we found it difficult to liquidate our excess inventory. However, soon after we listed our inventory on IndAXonline, we quickly identified a market for legacy & aged products, and were able to sell our entire unutilized inventory at an extremely lucrative price. IndAXonline is great asset to our industry, as it helps to REDUCE warehousing costs, REDUCE aging inventory & OPTIMIZE warehouse space.
